Silkwood Wines of Modesto hauls in awards

Silkwood Wines, produced in Modesto with Stanislaus County grapes, racked up several recent awards. The American Wine Society gave gold medals to the 2001 Syrah Selected Reserve, 2001 Syrah and 2002 Petite Sirah. The 2001 Syrah received the Grand Star Award at the Lone Star International Wine Competition in Texas - an honor given to the best of the gold medal winners in the red table wine class. The 2002 Petite Sirah won Best of Class, Double Gold Medal, in the San Francisco Chronicle wine competition. The winery was founded by John Monnich of Modesto, who still runs it.
